

DKH Newsletter

1st May 2020

Vouchers and Lunches

Some of you might have seen the voucher scheme with Edenred on the news last night. They continue to have difficulties due to the overwhelming demand and some parents are experiencing a delay in receiving their vouchers. The advice we have had is to clear your browser and to check your spam folder for the email from Edenred.

If you are unable to access the website, please contact the office and we can arrange to print the vouchers for you.

If you have difficulties getting food, please do contact the school and we can support you with an application for the foodbank or with a food parcel when we receive donations.

---

From Monday, those who ordered a school packed lunch can collect them between 12:30 and 12:45 from the playground. Please use the gate on Dog Kennel Hill to enter the playground where tables will be set up for you to collect the lunches from. Can we ask that you observe social distancing rules and ensure that you stay at least 2 meters apart and refrain from lingering in the playground.

If you require a packed lunch for the week of 11th May, please could you complete the survey by Tuesday the 5th of May. A text will be sent to you today with a link to the survey or you could use the link below:

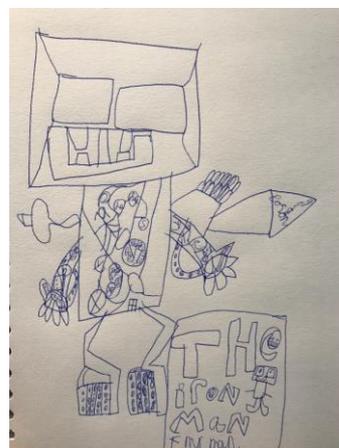

<https://bit.ly/2VOFXaU>

Home Learning

Please be on the lookout for the emails that our teachers are sending each week. This communication has been set up so children can get support with their learning. The teachers have very much enjoyed receiving pictures and examples of work and have asked that we share some of the wonderful examples this week :

Oak Class:

Owen Mann, Oak Class - Owen has been reading The Iron Man at home. He drew a detailed picture of the Iron Man. Great art Owen!

DKH Newsletter

1st May 2020

Oak Class:

Enzo Elliott, Oak Class - Enzo has produced some wonderful creative writing based on a Little Red Riding Hood and added a lovely picture to add more detail to his ideas. Well done Enzo!

Palm Class:

Jacob Mann has been reading The Iron Man with his brother and drew a picture and produced a wonderful piece of creative writing about a wrestling giraffe that he is particularly proud of. Wonderful work Jake!

Please email the office each Monday if you do not have the internet or a computer at home and would like a paper pack for home learning.