Talking Tuesday

Every Tuesday, children in Reception up to Year 6 have been having class assemblies called 'Talking Tuesdays'. The School Councilors in Years 1-6 are encouraged to lead their classes in a discussion around a question or 'silly' statement to debate. The children are also encouraged to use our 'Oracy Hand Signals' to support structuring their verbal debates.

We would love for our families to also have a go at debating at home! Our silly statement this week was themed around our school value of 'creativity'.

"Schools should spend more money on Reading, Writing and Maths because they are the most important subjects." What do you think?

ORACY HAND SIGNALS

- I agree because...
- I disagree because...
- I challenge that because...
- I would like to build on what has been said...
- Linking to what has been said...

Year 5 Learning This Week

In Maths this week, Hazel Class has been learning how to measure angles with a protractor and to classify each angle.

In English, we have been finishing off writing our own myths with a focus on using speech marks.

"Um maybe..." Alexander quickly covers his mouth before she can finish her sentence.

"No, no we aren't." Alexander replied. Alexander looks at his ring like if she did the wrong choice which is she did. Alexander whispers to Brianna.

"Look if you know this boy is one of the sea serpents then don't call him out."
Alexander gulps as he looks at Peter, dead in the egg, but Peter... just walked off.

"Phew, Brianna said, but just as she said that they both heard a deep growl
from afar.

"What was that?" whispered Alexander.

"I don't know..." Brianna whispered back.

Suddenly, the sea serpent who was Peter came out with a corpse in his mouth. The devil hissed
at them,

"hisses..." a deep, silent hiss.

"Oh My..." Alexander and Brianna stated at the same time, Brianna screams,

"AHH! IT'S THE SEA SERPENT!!!"

The sea serpent quickly coiled its slimy tail
around Brianna, covering her mouth.

Now, the young hero had created the stone
into her tomb. She sailed to the remote coast of its island. Very soon, she had reached the very opening.
She trembled with every step she took, the dingy, pitch black cave was plunging as she considered what could be there. She saw the rotting, decayed corpses of unknown victims
scattered all over the walls, half disintegrated skeletons. The walls were drenched stained with blood. There screamed an eerie, whispering scream of transpired, swirling visions of the demonic night.
"I hate doing this, why should I do it
this deed? Can I even do it, behind doubt in Herod's mind."

Back to Lilliana and Dominic, they were pulling steps and making it to the bottom of the cave. Prince Ictus arrived at Rhodes which the bloodthirsty beast. "You thought I wouldn't and you've been had the prince. How Rhodius!
And just like that I let her scurried down
on his feet and killed Dominic. NO" shouted
the princess. "What have you done?"
The evil prince laughed and scurried
"You thought you could hide
from me." Laughed Prince Ictus. Prince Lilliana ran as fast as she could
in her long purple dress and her brown leather sandals. She ran for hours through the woods with the Hydroian and prince Ictus chasing her. Until...

She outran them and found a little house.
Eagerly, she opened the door "come in" said
a kind voice. The princess walked in the house
"sit down" Lilliana sat down, sitting...
Opposite her was an old wise lady.
"I see you have been troubled" roused the old lady. "How do you know, scintillated"
the worried princess (not knowing that the old lady's picture Ictus in disguise.) "I saw
you in my crystal ball" croaked the old lady.
"I can tell your fate" continued the old lady.
"You will have great success and defeat
that nasty prince but first you must take a protective shield and this potion that will give you a rest."

We are going to be phasing out using Arbor for text messages. To replace this, we will be using the in App messaging service in Study Bugs.

Scooter and Cycle Safety and Parking

If you are Scootering or cycling to school, please remember to wear your helmets! We have seen a number of children who are not wearing helmets as they are riding their bikes or scooters to school. It is essential that you wear one to protect your head from injury incase you accidentally fall off.

1

Eyes: Put the helmet on your head. Look up. You should see the bottom rim of the helmet.

2

Ears: Make sure the straps form a "V" under your ears when buckled. The straps should be a little tight but comfortable.

Mouth: Open your mouth as wide as you can. Does the helmet hug your head? If not, tighten the straps.

Please also be advised that parking or idling is not permitted in Karen Court Carpark, neighboring residential parking spots or on the zig zags directly outside of school. There is free parking available in the surrounding areas.
