Year 2: Autumn 1
The lives of important people in the past

Ibn Battuta

world map

Matthew Henson

Felicity Aston

David Attenborough

Vocabulary

explorer

scientist

zoologist

biologist

significant

important

expedition

voyage

What I already know:

Reception

- That there were important people who lived in the past
- How to use 'time' words to describe things that happened in the past

Year 1

- About the lives of significant individuals in the past eg Mae Jamison, Neil Armstrong
- Changes within living memory.
- Important historical events, people and places in our locality, for example Dr Letsom: Who he was, what he did and how he contributed to Dulwich life.

What I will learn now:

Year 2

- About the lives of important people in the past
- About people in the past who were important in this country and in other countries
- To compare ways of life in different time periods

Key facts

- Ibn Battuta was an explorer who lived over 700 years ago
- Matthew Henson was an African American explorer who went on 7 voyages to the Arctic
- Felicity Aston travelled across the Antarctic on skis
- David Attenborough is a naturalist who explores plant and animal life

What I will learn next:

Year 3

- How the Roman Empire began and the effect of the invasion on Britain
- Using artefacts to investigate what life in Anglo-Saxon Britain was like

Year 4

- How the Roman Empire began and the effect of the invasion on Britain
- Using artefacts to investigate what life in Anglo-Saxon Britain was like